About This Book & How to Play

Welcome to Mystery Word Search: The Leftover Name — a complete, ready-to-print book of 50 cozy mystery cases, each one a word search with a twist.

HOW TO PLAY

Every case opens with a short story and a list of 8 suspects. Seven of those names are hidden in the letter grid — across, down and diagonally, forwards and backwards. One name is NOT in the grid at all. Find the seven, and the name left over is your culprit. That is the whole case: no trivia, no outside knowledge — if a name is not hiding in the letters, it did it.

Stuck on a name? The solutions in the back show every grid with the seven names highlighted, name the culprit outright, and close each case with the culprit's motive.

The leftover name: LEONARD — CASE CLOSED.

Leonard had walked a frightened visitor home and forgot to log it.

Casebook Closed

Fifty cases opened, fifty culprits named — nicely hunted. Print any case again whenever you like, and share printed pages with family, friends and your club or care group.
